

“At Risk Behavior” is developed by frequent disregard for safe practices in whatever we do. At work or at play poor safety habits can lead to disaster. The more we put ourselves “at risk” the more likely we will be injured. Think practices in Slow down! ing you del

Never climb on your chair or desk!

Don't follow too close!

